

“VARSITY ACADEMICS”

An Evening with Will Fitzhugh Editor, The Concord Review

www.tcr.org

“We believe that the pursuit of academic excellence in secondary schools should be given the same attention as the pursuit of excellence in sports and other extracurricular activities.” –TCR

Wednesday, November 19

7:00 p.m.

Lecture Hall 1345

Health Sciences Learning Center (HSLC)

750 Highland Avenue

We hope that Mr. Fitzhugh’s appearance will create new academic opportunities for Madison-area students.

Parking: Metered parking is available at the University Hospital (UWHC) Patient/Visitor Lot, just south of the HSLC. Free parking is available in Lot 85, across the street from the HSLC and next to the Pharmacy Building at 2245 Observatory Drive.

For more information – or to schedule some time with Mr. Fitzhugh during his visit – contact Jim Zellmer (608 213-0434), Lauren Cunningham (469-4474) or Laurie Frost (238-6375).
