

The Department of Population Health Sciences

and

The Robert Wood Johnson
Health & Society Scholars Program

Present

Clyde Hertzman, M.D.

Professor of Health Care and Epidemiology
Director, Human Early Learning Partnership
Co-Editor, Developmental Health and the Wealth of Nations
University of British Columbia
<http://www.earlylearning.ubc.ca>

“No Child Left Behind...Canadian Style”

Thursday, November 18

3:30 – 4:30 pm

Waisman Conference Center (North Tower, 2d floor)

1500 Highland Ave., Located on the UW-Madison Campus (northwest of UW Hospital and Clinics; directions at <http://www.waisman.wisc.edu/wcmap.html>)

For further information, please see our websites:
<http://www.pophealth.wisc.edu/> and
<http://www.pophealth.wisc.edu/rwjscholars/> or contact Jane Lambert at 265-4592, jflamber@wisc.edu