

Gold-Standard Leadership Training

Each complimentary full-day training provides administrators and leaders with the knowledge and strategies needed to implement research-based, multitiered reading instruction and achieve optimal growth for all learners.

Monday, December 8

Waukesha County Technical College
800 Main Street, Pewaukee
Anderson Education Center, Room C057

- OR -

Wednesday, December 10

Madison College Truax Campus
1701 Wright Street, Madison
Truax-Main Building, Room C1435

EVENT AGENDA

Registration 8:00 – 8:30 a.m.

Morning Training Session 8:30 – 11:30 a.m.

- What is possible? What should our expectations for reading achievement be?
- How we teach literacy is just as important as what we teach
- Creating a shared leadership culture to assist the principal in increasing literacy achievement

Lunch (will be provided) 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Afternoon Training Session 12:30 – 3:30 p.m.

- Got data? Now what?
- How to select the best materials in order to work smarter
- What your teachers know and don't know about the teaching of literacy

RSVP

Space is limited to two representatives per district. Please RSVP by November 15.

KEVIN KUCKKAN, M.Ed. 866.340.3692 / kevin.kuckkan@voyagersopris.com

KEYNOTE PRESENTER

Pati Montgomery, Ed.S., is the former executive director of the Office of Literacy for the state of Colorado. She has also served as a special education administrator and as an elementary and middle school principal.

Ms. Montgomery is the coauthor of the supplementary LETRS resource A Principal's Primer for Raising Reading Achievement, a "how-to" manual for education leaders who want to improve overall reading performance in their schools.

LETRS® professional development prepares educators to take on the challenging work of teaching literacy and has been adopted by states, districts, and schools nationwide. Learn more at www.letrslink.com