Presented by Lake Superior Tutoring Center

For professionals involved in reading education, parents of children struggling with reading in school, and anyone who is interested in literacy advocacy.

SATURDAY

OCTOBER 25th, 2014

9:00 AM to 2:00 PM

Stagenorth Theater
123 E. Omaha Street
Washburn, WI 54891

Guest Speaker: Shantell Barrett

Shantell Barrett has a B.A. in English from BYU specializing in language processing deficits and behavioral issues. She is a former teacher and a parent of a child with dyslexia. She is also the Dyslexia Specialist and Director of Training for Reading Horizons. To learn more about Shantell and Reading Horizons go to: www.ReadingHorizons.com.

Forum Topic: Managing Dyslexia

We will discuss the why behind dyslexia and how it manifests in student behavior pertaining to language and otherwise. You will learn effective strategies for reading instruction, ways to address behavioral issues, and how to provide the most effective learning environment for these students.

The Lake Superior Tutoring Center is a non-profit organization that provides help to students with dyslexia in Ashland, Bayfield and Douglas Counties at no charge. To Learn more, go to: www.LakeSuperiorTutoring.org.

Seating is limited. Free lunch is included with seats reserved by October 18th.
